January 25, 1963.

Mrs. Ann E. Johnson, North Carolina College, Durham, N. C.

Mrs. Andy P. Orr, N. C. State College, Raleigh, N. C.

Miss Jean Phifer, Myers Park High School, Charlotte, N. C.

Dear Ladies:

We still exist as the N. C. L. A. Constitution and Codes Committee, I believe, though we cannot claim much for our actions.

You may recall the decision that we would each try to revise, independently, the existing rules and then iron out differences. This was to be in lieu of meetings, which seemed impractical.

Attached is my proposed revisal together with a sheet of comments. Also attached is a suggestion from Mr. West.

Please feel free to suggest any change that comes to your mind, sending copies to the other Committee members.

I think it imperative that we conclude our business in time to make a report to the Executive Board at its next meeting. To put it mildly, we have been too long on this revision. The fault has been mine, but I trust you will now help me wind it up.

Cordially,

Winston Broadfoot

Note

P. S.

I think it important that the Committee meet in Raleigh, March 2nd for the N. C. L. A. work-session.

Please let me know as soon as possible whether you can attend.
